PRESS RELEASE

A novelty in Spain:

The Mystery Dinner "Escena del Crimen" in Pueblo Chico.

As part of the activities of the III. Agatha Christie Festival in Puerto de la Cruz, organized by the tourist office CIT Puerto de la Cruz, presents the theatre company "Escena del Crimen" led by the German actress and director Antonia Jaster and the Canarian theatre director Manuel Luis. On 19th of November 2011 the premiere of the interactive dinner show "The mysterious testament of Don Césare" will take place in Pueblo Chico. On 3rd of December there will be a second performance, both at 20:00 clock.

Theatre at its best, written and directed by Antonia Jaster & Manuel Luis. An excellent Italian cuisine of top chef Liberio Cattano and the magical ambience of Pueblo Chico at night. Combined with many surprises, the event offers an unusual experience for those who wish to enjoy with all six senses.

An evening, with the Sicilian Mafia in the '30 ties, full of thrills, adventure, crime, intrigue and surprises. Participants are encouraged, to solve the criminal case (prize for the best detective!) and to enjoy an excellent four-course menu.

Pueblo Chico and the theatre of the CIT Puerto de la Cruz have teamed up to offer their guests a very special event.

The crime, which will be performed in Spanish, consists of pictorial action and many scenic effects that even viewers who do not speak Spanish will mostly enjoy.
